

31 Pond Street,
Hampstead,
London, N.W.3.

11th April, 1956.

Dear Professor Lederberg,

I don't think I ever acknowledged your kind letter and the reprints, in which I was most interested and which were very useful. I am now just finishing this wretched review, which has cost me about ten times as much hard work as I anticipated!

My wife and I are coming over to the U.S. for  $4\frac{1}{2}$  months from June 1st and shall be spending July and most, or all, of August at Woods Hole. Is there any chance of your being there? In August or early September we shall be going across to the Coast, and might be able to stop off in Wisconsin if you and my other friends are likely to be there then. Could you let me know your plans?

Yours sincerely,

Julian Huxley

Julian Huxley.

Professor Joshua Lederberg,
Department of Genetics,
University of Wisconsin,
Madison 6, Wis.

---